This is a public and mail bid auction sale. Mail bids will be treated as limits and lots will be purchased for less than the maximum bid when competition permits. All lots will be sold on the date indicated. All floor sales are final. No lots may be returned for any reason by floor buyers. Any claims for adjustment by mail bidders must be made within three days following lot delivery. No lots may be returned without express written permission. All lots will be sold to the highest bidder. Postage, insurance and shipping costs will be added to all invoices. There will be a $1.00 charge per lot for packing and processing.

A ten percent buyers' premium will be added to the cost of all lots.

All lots delivered in California are subject to California sales tax unless the bidder possesses a California resale license and has a resale card on file with us at the time of the submission of his bids. Lots to be mailed to addresses outside the United States of America or its Territories will be sent only at the risk of the purchaser. Whenever possible, insurance or registry will be obtained. It must be noted, however, that adequate insurance is often not available via surface mail.

Terms of this sale are strictly cash in United States funds only. Payments from foreign accounts must be made in U.S. Dollars drawn on a United States bank. Bids from minors cannot be accepted without written and signed parental permission. Bidders unknown to us must supply acceptable credit references or a 25% deposit to assure entry of their bids. Title remains with the owner until lots are paid for in full. We reserve the discretionary right to withhold delivery of lots until full payment has been received.

All books are as described. We acknowledge the possibility of errors or typographical mistakes, and any errors on our part will be cheerfully corrected. We cannot be responsible for your errors; please check your bid sheet carefully. The prices indicated after each lot are estimates of value only and are intended solely as a guide. The prices realized may be higher or lower than these valuations. By submitting your bids you agree to the Terms of Sale herewith set forth. Payment in full must be made immediately upon notification and, in all cases, within thirty days from the date of sale.

Original Attinelli

5 ATTINELLI, E(MMANUEL) J(OSEPH). Numisgraphics, or A List of Catalogues, in which occur Coins or Medals, which have been sold by auction in the United States, also, A List of Catalogues or Price Lists of Coins, issued by dealers, also, a list of various publications of more or less interest to numismatologists, which have been published in the United States. New York, 1876. 123 pages, folding frontispiece facsimile. Contemporary red half morocco, gilt, rather crudely rebacked, later ink annotations in the text. Very good. (500.00)

A remarkable work, published, as John Adams notes in the foreword to the 1976 reprint, "near the climax of the period that witnessed the establishment of coin collecting in the United States." It provides today's numismatist a rare glimpse of nineteenth century American numismatics. Far from being a dull compilation of statistics, Attinelli's work comes alive with its colorful vignettes of dealers and collectors of the time and its recording of useful facts and fascinating lore, much of which would certainly be unknown today but for his efforts. Perhaps as few as fifty copies were originally printed, a figure certainly consistent with the two dozen or so copies still known to be extant in institutional and private holdings.

6 BOWERS, Q. DAVID. Adventures with Rare Coins. Los Angeles, 1979. xii, 305 pages, well illustrated. 4to. Pictorial boards, a little rubbed at extremities. (35.00)

Inscribed twice, as follows: "To John J. Ford, Jr. With compliments and with appreciation for your help. (signed) Q. David Bowers, 16 April 1979." Followed by: "To Dick Picker — Who I am sure misses Ted as much as I do. Enjoy this EF copy of QDB's book (mine is AU), I'm sure Dave won't mind. (signed) JJF." The "Ted" referred to is Ted Craige, who, along with Homer Downing, are the subjects of Ford's inspiring foreword to this popular work.

7 BOWERS, Q. DAVID. The History of United States Coinage As Illustrated by the Garrett Collection. Los Angeles, 1979. First Printing. xv, 572 pages, well illustrated. 4to. Black cloth, gilt. (35.00)

Richard Picker's copy with his name stamped in gilt on the lower front cover, presentation inscription signed by the author. Loosely laid in are two 1980 letters from Bowers to Picker regarding colonials and Washington pieces in the Garrett collection.

8 BOWERS, Q. DAVID. The History of United States Coinage As Illustrated by the Garrett Collection. Los Angeles, 1980. Second Printing. xv, 572 pages, well illustrated. 4to. Black cloth, gilt. (35.00)

Richard Picker's copy with his name and "Second Printing" stamped in gilt on the lower front cover, presentation inscription signed by the author. Misbound as follows: lacking pages 145-160, with duplicates of pages 137-144 & 161-168.

Inscribed to Richard Picker by the author.

10 BREEN, WALTER. "A Coiner's Caviar": Walter Breen's Encyclopedia of U.S. and Colonial Proof Coins, 1722-1977. New York, 1977. (8), 324 pages, well illustrated. 4to. Original brown cloth, gilt, dust jacket. Fine. (65.00)

With the signature of the author on the title, in violet ink.

11 BRESSETT, KEN & KOSOFF, A. The Official American Numismatic Association Grading Standards for United States Coins. Compiled, Arranged and Edited by Ken Bressett and A. Kosoff. Introduction by Q. David Bowers. Racine, October 31, 1977. Final Proof. 352 pages, text illustrations. 8½" x 14" photocopies, two pages per sheet. In the original mailing envelope. (35.00)

Abe Kosoff's Advance Copy of the Grading Guide

12 BRESETT, KEN & KOSOFF, A. The Official American Numismatic Association Grading Standards for United States Coins. Compiled, Arranged and Edited by Ken Bressett and A. Kosoff. Introduction by Q. David Bowers. Colorado Springs, 1977. 352 pages, text illustrations. 12mo. Printed grey boards. (50.00)

Taped in the front pastedown is the following handwritten note: "Nov. 21, 1977. Mr. Kosoff - We thought you would like to see this. This copy is one that was hand assembled and not one that would normally come out of our bindery . . . (signed) Jenny Tomaszek, Whitman Coin Products." A note in Kosoff's hand follows: "This was prepared before the binding of the regular issue had been completed and is probably the first copy completed. AK." One of the most controversial American numismatic works ever published.

15 BRESETT, KEN & KOSOFF, A. The Official American Numismatic Association Grading Standards for United States Coins . . . Racine, 1977. 352 pages, text illustrations, interleaved throughout. White card covers, original front cover and spine titling laid-on. (35.00)

From the Kosoff library though not so marked or numbered.

Perhaps the Earliest Substantial Coin Illustrations Printed in America

16 CALMET, (ANTOINE AUGUSTIN). Calmet's Great Dictionary of the Holy Bible . . . Charlestown, Printed and Sold by Samuel Etheridge, Jun., 1812. Title leaf, "To the Reader" leaf, 43 finely engraved plates, mostly depicting ancient coins, "Explanations of the Plates", comprising pages (469)-496. 4to, 28 x 23½ cm. Plain wrappers, a little worn, title a bit dusty. (100.00)

A French Benedictine, Father Calmet (1672-1757) wrote a number of highly regarded biblical works. The American Numismatic Society Catalogue lists an 1817 version of this work (page 316).

17 (COMPARETTE, T.L.). Catalogue of Coins, Tokens, and Medals in the Numismatic Collection of the Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa. Washington, 1913. Second Edition. 634 pages, frontis, 15 plates. Original blue cloth, gilt, small marginal tear in the last several leaves, no loss. (45.00)

18 (COMPARETTE, T.L.). Catalogue of Coins, Tokens, and Medals in the Numismatic Collection of the Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa. Washington, 1914. Third Edition. 694 pages, frontis, 15 numbered plates, 3 plates of American coins loosely laid in, 6 additional plates bound in at the end captioned "Coin Issues since the Publication of this Volume" consisting of commemorative half dollar illustrations removed from annual Mint Reports. Later blue cloth, gilt. (50.00)

19 DICKESON, MONTROVILLE WILSON. The American Numismatical Manual of the Currency or Money of the Aborigines, and Colonial, State, and United States Coins. With Historical and Descriptive Notices of Each Coin or Series. Philadelphia, 1859. First Edition. 256 pages, frontispiece portrait, 19 attractive plates of coins and currency, printed in color and metallic tints. 4to. Original blindstamped cloth, gilt, extremities a little worn, lacking front free flyleaf. Very good. (125.00)

20 DICKESON, MONTROVILLE WILSON. The American Numismatical Manual . . . Philadelphia, 1865. Third Edition. 256 pages. 4to. Original maroon cloth, gilt. (50.00)

A scarce variant of this famous work, "Without Plates" being stamped in gilt on the spine. Apparently issued by Lippincott & Co. after their supply of complete sets of plates had been exhausted.

21 ECKFELDT, JACOB R. & DU BOIS, WILLIAM E. A Manual of Gold and Silver Coins of All Nations . . . Philadelphia, 1842. (4), 220 pages, engraved frontispiece, 16 engraved plates of coins. 4to. Original cloth, spine ends worn, contents coming loose, frontispiece a little discolored as usual. (150.00)

A significant book in many respects, not the least of which is the method used to produce the plates. Though engraved, the plates have almost the appearance of photographs, an effect produced by the medal-ruling machine. Were it not for the development of photography about this time it is likely that this method of illustration would have found wide acceptance, being the most accurate up to that time. The origins of the medal-ruling machine are shrouded in controversy though it appears to have first developed in France and England in the early 1800's. In this country, Christian Gobrecht constructed the first such machine in 1817 and the device used to produce the plates in this 1842 work was a greatly improved model made by another mint employee, Joseph Saxon. The copy of the book offered here features manuscript notes in the hand of E. E. Law who asserted that credit for the first medal-ruling machine made in this country should go to one Asa Spencer and not to Gobrecht. Law was the executor of Spencer's estate and apparently knew him well. Though Spencer is mentioned in the book, he and Law felt that much of the information given was inaccurate.

22 ECKFELDT, JACOB R. & DU BOIS, WILLIAM E. A Manual of Gold and Silver Coins of all Nations . . . Philadelphia, 1842. (4), 220 pages, frontis, 16 finely engraved plates of coins. 4to. Original cloth, gilt, spine defective. (150.00)

23 EVANS, GEORGE G. Illustrated History of the United States Mint with a complete description of American Coinage . . . Philadelphia, 1888. vi, 160 pages, advertisements, frontis, text illustrations. Original maroon cloth, gilt, a bit worn and spotted. (35.00)

Abe Kosoff's Annotated Farouk Sale

24 [FAROUK, KING]. The Palace Collections of Egypt. Catalogue of the Highly Important and Extremely Valuable Collection of Coins and Medals, The Property of the Republic of Egypt. Cairo, Sotheby & Co., February 24-March 6, 1954. 306, (6) pages, 2798 lots, 37 double-page plates, prices realized list. Original printed green card covers, detached and well worn, title a bit creased and worn, heavily annotated. (750.00)

Abe Kosoff's sales room copy of this legendary sale. The sections featuring American coins are intensively annotated with selling prices, buyers' names, Kosoff's limits in code, notes on condition and mis-described lots, names of American dealers on lots where it was apparently determined in advance that only those dealers would bid, notes on the subsequent disposition of certain lots, etc., etc. The remainder of the sale is intermittently annotated. Also loosely laid in are a number of items relating to the sale, including two letters from Abner Kreisberg, vacationing in Mexico at the time but largely pertaining to the sale, a Kofax invoice detailing the distribution of certain lots, a memo from Kreisberg regarding the sale of some coins from the sale owned jointly by Kosoff/Kreisberg and Sol Kaplan, material relating to Kosoff's series of articles on the sale, etc., etc. The sale of the Farouk collection is one of the most famous (perhaps infamous is a better word) numismatic auctions ever held. The eccentricities of its owner were exceeded only by the method in which the collection was dispersed. Held in Egypt and conducted by a British auction firm it was inevitable that the large numbers of rare American coins would largely sell for bargain prices. While much of the intrigue in Cairo may never be known, this copy of the sale catalogue, along with Kosoff's series of articles, provides a rare glimpse of this memorable event. Unique and most desirable.

25 HAFEN, LeROY R. Currency, Coinage and Banking in Pioneer Colorado. Denver, The Colorado Magazine, Volume X, Number 3, May, 1933. (81)-120 pages, the Hafen monograph comprises the first ten pages and features text illustrations of coins and script. Original printed paper covers. (35.00)
Very scarce.

26 (HUNT, GAILLARD). The History of the Seal of the United States. Washington, D.C., 1909. 72 pages, color frontispiece, 7 plates, one in color, depicting various versions of the Seal. Full black leather, gilt, binding worn. (35.00)

27 JONES, GEORGE F. The Coin Collectors' Manual, Containing a Description of the Gold, Silver, Copper and other Coins, of the United States, Together with an Account of Actual Sales in Philadelphia and New York, Designed as a Guide Book for Coin Collectors. Philadelphia, Edward Cogan, 1860. 41 pages. 4to. Original black cloth, lettered in gilt on front, spine rebacked with red cloth, corners bumped and worn. (100.00)
Sigler 1415. Attinelli page 110. Very scarce. With the oval stamp of the Long Island Historical Society and the library label of Jacob T. Bowne of Glen Cove. A most significant work, being the first guide book of values for American coins, including colonials and patterns. Values are listed in columns and include the 1855 Kline sale, Cogan's 1858 sale, the 1859 Levick sale, 1859 New York coin sales, Cogan's 1860 sale and private sales. That the problems inherent in grading coins were present even at the birth of the coin trade in America is apparent from the author's well reasoned homily on the topic, found on page 23: "In the sales of the foregoing pieces, there are, of course, some apparent discrepancies, as, for instance, where the condition of the coin sold, is represented as the same, the prices are widely different. This can be accounted for, generally, in no other way, than that one coin collector or dealer may call a coin fine or very fine, when another would describe one exactly like it, only as good or fine. It is a matter of regret, that there is such diversity of opinion with regard to the condition of a coin. There must be an absence of prejudice and interest in the coin in question, in order to give a fair report of it; and at times, even experienced collectors and dealers will disagree."

181 [PATTERNS]. Photographs of United States Pattern, Trial and Experimental Pieces, Primarily One Cent, Three Cent and Five Cent Denominations. n.p., n.d. A series of over two hundred 3½" x 6" cards of thick photographic paper with the obverse and reverse photograph of a pattern at the left, the Adams-Woodin number and rarity, and a brief description (or several descriptions of similar varieties) to the right. Descriptions are sometimes followed by what appears to be a price code and on the back of some cards are records circa 1907-1912 of coins sold, name of the dealer and date of sale. (250.00)
